BJC Roundup

Boise, Idaho, January 26, 1953

Phyllis Browning To Be New Editor Of Roundup

Phyllis Browning, freshman at BJC, has been named the second semester editor of the Roundup. She was appointed by the student executive board of the school which states that a new editor of the paper must be appointed each semester. Phyllis showed the greatest promise and will take the place of Dick Priest, who will show her the ropes of make-up, proof-reading, and placing of ads in the paper. Dick will be the new business manager replacing Cliff Rice, who is waiting a new assignment from Phyllis. Phyllis was a member of the HighLights staff, Boise high school paper, in her senior year.

Registration Set For Next Semester February 2 and 3

Boise Junior College officials said Tuesday that registration for the spring semester will take place February 2 and 3. For new students who have never attended the college, it will be necessary to take entrance examinations in room 110 Monday, February 2, beginning at 8:30 a.m. Any students who entered the first semester too late for these tests will also be required to take them at the same office to be sure they meet the requirements for graduation.

Registration for sophomores will take place in the college library Monday, February 2, and freshmen on the following day. Both groups will report to the library according to the following schedule:

Students whose last names begin with

STUVWXYZ—9:00 to 10:30

KLMNOPQR—10:30 to noon

EFGHIJ—1:00 to 2:30

ABCD—2:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Checking for study load will be done in room 107 by the deans, and final checking will be done in room 108 before payment of fees.

Final examination for this semester's work will start Tuesday, January 27 and will run through January 29. Night school registration for the new semester will take place the evenings of February 9 and 10, the hours of 7 to 9 p.m.

"Fatigue Dance"

How would you like to dance to some of the big name bands, such as Ralph Flannegan, Louie Armstrong and Frank Deval? You would? Well, here is your chance. On Friday, January 29, the Union night committee is sponsoring a "Fatigue" dance downstairs in the Union building. Dancing will be from 10 to 12 to the music of name bands on the juke box. For those of you who would rather play cards, the north and south lounges will be open. Also, the fountain will remain open during the evening.

The dance will be informal, with school clothes in order. As this is somewhat of a celebration for the completion of semester tests, it is hoped there will be a large turnout and heaps of fun for everyone.

BJC Students Invited To Dance By Nursing School

All BJC students are cordially invited to attend a dance given by the junior class of St. Luke's Nursing School on February 6, at the St. Margaret's gymnasium.

The "Blue Serenaders" of the college will furnish the music and dancing will be from 9 to 12 with a floor show as an added attraction.

Admission price is $1.50 per couple, $1.00 for men and 50c for ladies. Refreshments will be provided free of charge.

This dance is being given to raise money for the annual Junior-Senior Prom to be held in the spring and to provide an evening of entertainment and relaxation.

Student of the Week

This week we would like to introduce Miss Mary Salazar, a sophomore student who hails from Emmett. Mary is very active on the BJC campus as a member of the Valkyries, Spanish club and Newman club, along with being business manager on the Les Bois staff. In her freshman year, she was equally as busy being second semester editor of the Roundup, and a member of the Spanish club, Newman club, F.T.A., B-Cubes, and I.R.C.

After her graduation from BJC Miss Salazar plans to attend the University of Oregon where she will advance her studies in the field of journalism.

Mary's pet peeves are semester tests and her favorite food is chow mein. To those of you who know her you have probably seen Mary bouncing around the campus in her little black car which she calls Matilda. In this, she spends much of her time with her constant companions, Phyllis Chamberlain and Miki Flaherty. However, if she isn't riding in Matilda, she can usually be found in Mr. Gottenberg's office typing away on some news story. At the present time Mary is working for the Morning Statesman, in which she writes the weekly BJC news column.

Globe Trotters, SPHA's, Hawaiians, Hula Girls Here 29th

Highlighting the sports program this week will be the Harlem Globe Trotters and the Boise Junior College Broncos Thursday night at the Boise high school gym.

The first game will be at 7:30 between the professional Philadelphia SPHA's and the Hawaiian Surf Riders and during the half-time of the first game the hula girls from Hawaii will perform.

During the half-time of the Globe Trotter game Jacques Carbon, the famed unicyclist, will put on his display of fancy tricks on the unicycle. Ted Bourne and Bob Anderson, the world's professional table tennis championship due, will also perform at the half-time in this game.

BJC students and Faculty members are reminded that neither student activity tickets nor faculty comps will be honored at the Globe Trotter game.

Tickets are on sale at Kleffner's and C & S Sports stores at 74c for students and the following adult prices: $1.00, $1.50 and $2.40.

The Valkyries and the Pi Sigs will have charge of the concessions and the B-Cubes and Intercollegiate Knights will have the job of selling the programs.

Third Vesper Series To Be Held Feb. 8

The third vesper series will be held in the auditorium on February 8. Featured in the program will be Mr. Carroll Meyer, pianist, and Mrs. Kathryn Eckhardt Mitchell on the violin and viola.

The band has been in a number of activities this semester. They have made 27 public appearances. These were at basketball and football games, and once at Weber. They were also part of the backbone at the pep rallies.

DRIVE SLOWLY

So far this year, there has been very few traffic mishaps and accidents on the premises of Boise Junior College. But now that old man winter is breathing down our necks, we will have to stay on our toes to maintain our fine safety record, for the streets will soon be icy and slippery. Drive slowly and carefully while entering and leaving the college grounds.

The Boise police department recently issued a number of parking citations to improperly parked automobiles and those parked on the yellow lines in front of the Union. By parking in front of the Union, it interferes with the delivery of freight into the nearby buildings, and also makes it hazardous to drive through that area. A parking lot is provided for those wishing to enter the Union or the dormitories.

If we all continue to do our part and obey the signs and regulations, nothing will be said against the drivers at BJC. Men still die with their boots on, but one of them is usually on the throttle.

Mr. McCann Teacher of the Week

Mr. Lester J. McCann is an instructor who is seeking the higher levels of learning by seeking the higher altitudes in search of the mountain sheep. He spent a year in the Gros Ventre mountains near Jackson, Wyoming, and not far from Yellowstone National Park. There he studied the wanderings and habitat of mountain sheep. He and his companion and guide, whose father was a guide for Buffalo Bill Cody, followed the sheep through the snow of the lower altitudes in winter and the summer months when they moved far above the timber line. Mr. McCann's reward for a year of staring through binoculars and sleeping out in the open will be a doctor's degree from the University of Utah.

Mr. McCann is to be congratulated at this season of the year for having five exemptions on his income tax, his charming wife and four children, Catherine, Margaret, George and Douglas.

After three and a half years in the navy Mr. McCann taught at the Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney, Washington, near Spokane. During the past three years Boise Junior College has been privileged to include Mr. McCann on their faculty as an instructor of zoology, forestry, genetics, physiology and anatomy.

Don't Forget

BJC students and faculty members are reminded that neither student activity tickets nor faculty comps will be honored at the Globe Trotter game Thursday evening. Tickets are on sale at Kleffner's and C & S Sport stores at 74c for students and the following adult prices: $1.00, $1.50 and $2.40.

"January Thaw" Cast Selected

The cast for the Boise Junior College play, "January Thaw," consists of Jerry Crandall, Herbert; Bernadine Aubert, Marge; Rosalie Hartwell, Barbara; Gloria Logan, Mathilda; Wendell Long, Jonathan; Bob Kellogg, Matt; Rita Rae Williams, Sarah; Warren Pepperdine, Loomis; Kenneth Moore, Uncle Walter; Marlene Ulrich, Freida; Genevieve Gillett, Paula; Philip Meagher, George; George Spelvin, Constable; and George Avant, Carson.

The production consists of director, Harold Wennstrom; assistant director, Marvin Gardner; scenery design, Don Bagley; lighting, James Walker, and personal props, Patricia Thompson, Sharon Morrow, Kathy Ryan. Rosalie Majette has the set properties. Other production responsibilities are still to be assigned.

If you are unaware of what "arena" staging is, it is the name given to productions which are given in the center of the room with the audience on all sides. Boise Junior College productions in this style in the past include "George and Margaret" given in the Crystal ballroom in 1943, "Claudia" in 1946, "Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek" in 1950, and "The Devil and Daniel Webster" in 1952.

This production technique has the advantage of permitting a more intimate relationship between audience and actor. Instead of concentrating on scenery, the attention of the production staff is focused on the lighting and costumes, also properties and better acting.

Spanish Club News

"Romance Language Night," March 21, will feature two very unusual comedies. The Spanish classes will present "La Muela de Juico," meaning "The Wisdom Tooth." In addition the French class will give, "L'Anglais Tel Qu'on Le Parle," meaning "English As It's Spoken."

Player of the Week

The player of the week is Mr. Frank Teverbaugh. Frank is a sophomore, he graduated from the Mountain Home high school where he was also very active in school sports.

Frank played excellent football for the Broncos last season. He is now playing forward on the basketball team, and has already made a splendid record for himself.

Teverbaugh stands six feet three inches tall and weighs 190 lbs. His curriculum at BJC is physical education. Besides football and basketball, he is active in track and baseball. Let us all take our hats off to Frank and congratulate him for the fine job he is doing for BJC in the field of sports.

Art Exhibit Scheduled

The art department of BJC is sponsoring an art exhibit in room 304. The exhibit comes from the college of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, California. It is prepared by students of advanced art classes and is of water coloring, black and white sketch and silk screen types.

The exhibit will be open to the students of the school all during the remainder of the week. You are invited to come up and visit the exhibit.

Notice

Will those students that have debate manuals in their possession please return them to Mr. Harold Wennstrom or Lee Rodman as soon as possible.

Blood Drive Proves Success for Ik's

The Intercollegiate Knights and all the students who gave blood for the recent blood drive held on the campus are to be congratulated for the fine work and cooperation that went into this worthy cause. A total of 149 pints of blood was contributed by the students and faculty members of Boise Junior College to the American Red Cross.

Chairman Bob Peterson and his associates are to be commended for their splendid record of 149 pints of blood for the Red Cross. This year's drive was by far better than last year's and we hope that these worthwhile drives will continue on the BJC campus.
